Located in Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina our law office offers a wide variety of legal assistance to both local and international clients with a particular focus on services to the business sector, primarily commercial companies and corporations.

The firm prides itself on its ability to provide legal services and training in each of the firm's practice areas in both English and local languages.

Our history

For more than 130 years various members of my family, both along the maternal and paternal side, have been accumulating the wealth and professional experience in the science and practice of law, passing their passion and dedication down to the next generations. You can thus say that the Ademović & Associates is a true family tradition.

The recorded history of my maternal family's ties with the legal profession goes back to my great-grandfather, Jusuf-beg Filipović – the first Muslim lawyer in the Register of Lawyers in Sarajevo in 1883. My grandfather Mahmut Filipović continued his tradition that was, then, passed onto my mother, Meliha Filipović-Ademović – the youngest lawyer in former Yugoslavia.
